

Highfield Primary School Progression Map 2023 - 2024

Subject: Writing

Intent

Our Writing curriculum will allow children to develop and thrive with the transcription and composition elements of writing across all subjects. Children will write clearly, accurately and coherently, adapting their language and style in and for a range of contexts, purposes and audiences. Through the delivery of 'The Write Stuff' programme, children will find writing engaging and enjoyable whilst being immersed in a range of exciting stimuli. This will ensure that they not only understand the purpose and importance of writing but also fundamentally enjoy the writing process. Ultimately, our children will leave Highfield as confident, capable and independent writers, who understand the importance of writing as a life-long skill.

Impact (End points)
	Nursery	Reception	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
By the end of the Summer Term	Children in Nursery will be able to use some of their print and letter knowledge in their early writing so that some letters are accurately used. They will be able to write some or all of their name. Children will be able to write some letters accurately.	Children in Reception will be able to use their phase 2, 3 and 4 phonemes to write most words phonetically. They will be able to form lower-case and capital letters correctly. They will be able to write short sentences and phrases with words with known letter-sound correspondences using a capital letter and a full stop. They will be able to re-read what they have written to check that it makes sense and these compositions will be able to be read by others.	Children in Year 1 will be able to use their phase 3, 4 and 5 phonemes to write most words phonetically. They will write simple and compound sentences. They will be able to spell most Yr1 common exception words correctly. They will regularly use capital letters, full stops and finger spaces and sometimes use exclamation marks or question marks when appropriate. The children's handwriting style will be cursive with letter formations beginning and ending in the correct places.	Children in Year 2 will be able to use their phonic knowledge to spell polysyllabic words correctly. They will spell most of the Common Exception words for year 2 correctly in their work. They will know how to add the suffix –ed and –ing onto verbs. They will use commas, full stops, capital letters, exclamation marks, question marks and apostrophes for possession and contraction. They will be able to write coherently in the past tense. They will be able to write a sequenced piece of narrative writing. They will start to extend their sentences with: and, so, if, but,	Children in Year 3 will be able to plan, write and edit a range of stories and non-fiction text types. They will be able to use a range of sentences with more than one clause by using a wider range of conjunctions, using the present perfect form of verbs in contrast to the past tense. Children will be able to choose nouns or pronouns appropriately to avoid repetition and for clarity and cohesion. They will be able to use conjunctions, adverbs and prepositions to express time and cause using fronted adverbials. Children will be able to use appropriate punctuation accurately; inverted commas, commas and apostrophes	Children in Year 4 will be confident in discussing and recording their ideas when planning. Increased confidence will be seen in narrative and non-narrative writing through the processes of: creating settings, characters and plot, organising sections of writing with paragraphs, varied vocabulary being used for specific purpose, dialogue punctuated correctly and using specific words to express time and cause. Children will be able to use a dictionary to help check spelling mistakes.	A pupil in Year 5 will be able to write for a range of audiences and purposes, choosing appropriate styles, language and effects to suit the purpose. They will be able to plan, compose and edit their work independently to produce work they are proud of. They will be aware of the grammar and punctuation terms appropriate for their age and able to show them in a variety of contexts. They will be able to use a dictionary and thesaurus to further improve their writing by making appropriate word choices.	By the end of Year 6, pupils' reading and writing should be sufficiently fluent and effortless for them to manage the general demands of the curriculum in year 7, across all subjects and not just in English. They should be able to reflect their understanding of the audience and purpose of their writing by selecting appropriate vocabulary and grammar. Teachers should prepare pupils for secondary education by ensuring that they can consciously control sentence structure in their writing and understand why sentences are constructed as they are.
